

Washington, D. C. 20505

10 December 1979

Dear Mr. Kneeley,

I am happy to accept your kind invitation to be Pace University's commencement speaker.

However, before we make a firm, mutual commitment, I feel it only fair to apprise you of the possibility that my responsibilities could, at the last moment, prevent me from leaving Washington. In that event, I would ensure a suitable substitute speaker from the Intelligence Community. If such a conditional acceptance is satisfactory with you, I will reserve that date and look forward to being with you in Pleasantville on June 1, 1980.

Please feel free to communicate directly with my Special Assistant, [redacted], who will serve as point of contact in my office.

25X1

Yours sincerely,
